One of the best ways to learn a new language is through stories. Stories are engaging and easy to understand, and they can help you learn new vocabulary and grammar in a natural way.

If you're a beginner learner, I recommend starting with simple stories that use basic vocabulary and grammar. As you progress, you can gradually move on to more complex stories.

Here are 11 simple stories for beginners who want to learn Portuguese in less time while having fun:

1. A Menina e o Lobo

This classic story is about a little girl who is tricked by a wolf. The story is simple and easy to follow, and it uses basic vocabulary and grammar.

Moral da história: Não confie em estranhos.

2. Os Três Porquinhos

This is another classic story that is perfect for beginners. The story is about three little pigs who build houses of straw, sticks, and bricks. The wolf comes along and blows down the first two houses, but he can't blow down the house of bricks.

Moral da história: É importante trabalhar duro e construir uma base sólida.

3. Cachinhos Dourados e os Três Ursos

This is a well-known story about a little girl with golden curls who goes into the house of three bears. She eats their porridge, sits in their chairs, and sleeps in their beds.

Moral da história: Não entre na casa de outras pessoas sem permissão.

4. A Tartaruga e a Lebre

This is a fable about a race between a turtle and a hare. The hare is much faster than the turtle, but he is also very lazy. The turtle is slow and steady, but he never gives up. In the end, the turtle wins the race.

Moral da história: Devagar e sempre se ganha a corrida.

5. O Gato de Botas

This is a fairy tale about a cat who helps his master win the hand of a princess. The cat is very clever and resourceful, and he uses his wits to outsmart the king and the princess's other suitors.

Moral da história: A inteligência é mais importante que a força.

6. João e Maria

This is a classic fairy tale about two children who are abandoned in the woods by their parents. They come across a house made of gingerbread and candy, and they are lured inside by a witch. The witch tries to eat them, but they are able to escape.

Moral da história: Não confie em estranhos e nunca entre na casa de alguém sem permissão.

7. Chapeuzinho Vermelho

This is another classic fairy tale about a little girl who goes into the woods to visit her grandmother. She is warned not to talk to strangers, but she ignores the warning and talks to a wolf. The wolf tricks her into going to her grandmother's house, where he eats her.

Moral da história: Não confie em estranhos e nunca entre na casa de alguém sem permissão.

8. Cinderela

This is a classic fairy tale about a young woman who is mistreated by her stepmother and stepsisters. She is invited to a ball, but she is not allowed to go. With the help of her fairy godmother, she is able to go to the ball and meet the prince. They fall in love, and they get married.

Moral da história: Os sonhos podem se tornar realidade.

9. A Bela Adormecida

This is a classic fairy tale about a princess who is cursed to sleep for 100 years. She is awakened by a kiss from a prince.

Moral da história: O amor verdadeiro pode conquistar tudo.

10. A Pequena Sereia

This is a classic fairy tale about a mermaid who gives up her tail to become human. She falls in love with a prince, but she is not able to marry him. In the end, she sacrifices her life to save him.

Moral da história: O amor verdadeiro requer sacrifício.

11. A Bela e a Fera

This is a classic fairy tale about a beautiful woman who is imprisoned by a beast. The beast is actually a prince who has been cursed. The woman falls in love with the beast, and he is able to break the curse.

Moral da história: A beleza está no interior.

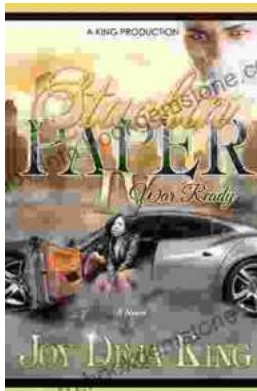

I hope you enjoy these simple stories. They are a great way to learn Portuguese in a fun and engaging way.
