Unveiling Cambodia's Ancient Treasures

Cambodia is renowned for its awe-inspiring temples, remnants of a glorious past. Dive into the enigmatic ruins of Angkor Wat, the world's largest religious monument. Explore the intricate carvings of Banteay Srei, the "Citadel of Women." Discover the atmospheric ruins of Sambor Prei Kuk, the former capital of the Chenla Kingdom.

Exploring Laos' Enchanting Landscapes

Laos, a landlocked country, offers a panorama of verdant landscapes. Embark on a leisurely boat trip down the mighty Mekong River, witness the cascading waters of Kuang Si Falls, and venture into the karst formations of Vang Vieng. Explore the ancient royal capital of Luang Prabang, a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Delving into Local Cultures

Cambodia and Laos are vibrant melting pots of diverse cultures. Immerse yourself in the traditional Khmer dance, marvel at the intricately woven Lao textiles, and savor the flavorful local cuisines. Engage with friendly locals and delve into the rich histories and beliefs that shape these countries.

REASONS TO LOVE CAMBODIA AND LAOS

DISCOVER Reasons to Love Cambodia and Laos

Lush, intoxicating, and suffused with a certain wild romance - Cambodia and Laos have an irresistible allure for travelers. There are many reasons to love these beautiful countries. Here we pick some of our favorites.

1 THE TEMPLES OF ANGKOR

From the jungle-strangled ruins of Ta Prohm to the majestic towers of Angkor Wat, this vast temple complex in Cambodia ranks high among the most awe-wonders of the world (see p96)

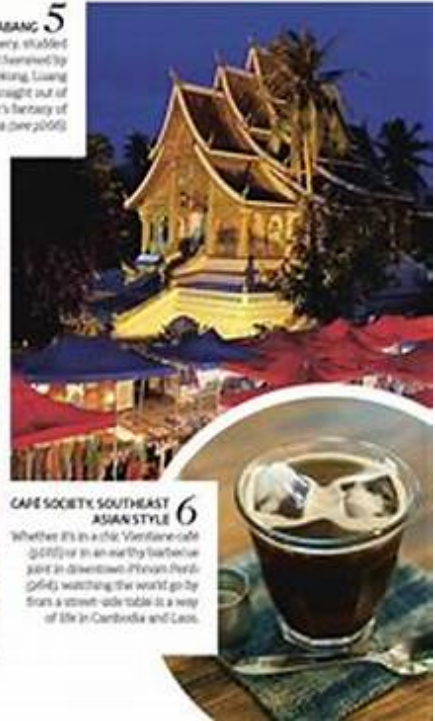

4 CAMBODIA'S COASTAL NATIONAL PARKS

Get back to nature in the national parks strung along Cambodia's southern coastline. Dig for tangled mangrove forests, snorkel amid swimming coral reefs or stroll along white-sand beaches (see p50)

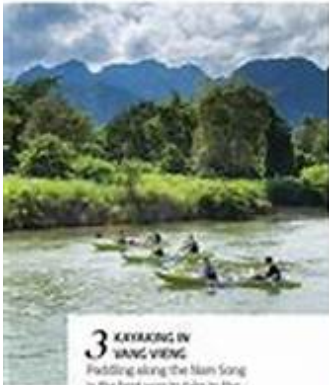

5 LUANG PRABANG

Swamped in greenery, studded with temples, and famed by the legendary Mekong, Luang Prabang is straight out of an old traveler's fantasy of Southeast Asia (see p100)

6 CAFE SOCIETY SOUTHEAST ASIAN STYLE

Whether it's in a chic, Vietnam-cabé (p107) or in an earthy barbeque joint in downtown Phnom Penh (p114), watching the world go by from a street-side table is a way of life in Cambodia and Laos.

3 KAYAKING IN XIANG VIENG

Paddling along the Nam Song is the best way to take in the towering karsts, cool limestone caves, and ethereal landscapes around Xiang Vieng (see p85)

2 THE MIGHTY MEKONG

The Mekong River is the connecting thread between Cambodia and Laos. Glowing in a Vermeer scene or traversed on a cruise from Phnom Penh, it is a comfort companion to travelers in the area (see p22)

The DK Eyewitness Cambodia & Laos Travel Guide is a visual masterpiece, featuring hundreds of stunning photographs that capture the essence of these countries. Detailed maps ensure effortless navigation, empowering you to tailor your own itinerary and discover hidden gems.
