

Eurisko Sails West: A Year in Panama

In January of 2022, Eurisko Sails West set sail on its first adventure in Panama. The company, which offers sailing charters and tours, was founded by husband-and-wife team, Captain Mike and Julieanne Eurisko. The couple had been sailing for years and had always dreamed of starting their own business. When they discovered Panama's beautiful coastline and friendly people, they knew they had found the perfect place to make their dream a reality.

The first year of any business is always challenging, but Eurisko Sails West faced some unique obstacles. The company was operating in a foreign country, with a different language and culture. They also had to contend with the COVID-19 pandemic, which caused travel restrictions and economic uncertainty.
