Background

The Covenant is a powerful alien alliance that has been waging a war of conquest against humanity for centuries. In 2525, the Covenant launched a massive invasion of Earth and its colonies. The UNSC was unprepared for the invasion and was quickly overwhelmed. The Drift Nova Force was created in response to the Covenant invasion. The unit was tasked with carrying out high-risk missions behind enemy lines, such as sabotage, assassination, and reconnaissance.

Composition

The Drift Nova Force was composed of some of the most skilled and experienced soldiers in the UNSC. The unit was led by Commander Sarah Palmer, a veteran of the Battle of Reach. The other members of the unit included:

- Master Chief Petty Officer John-117, a SPARTAN-II super soldier
- Lieutenant Commander Miranda Keyes, an intelligence officer
- Gunnery Sergeant Avery Johnson, a marine
- Corporal Michael "Mickey" Crespo, a sniper
- Private First Class Edward Buck, a recon specialist

Missions

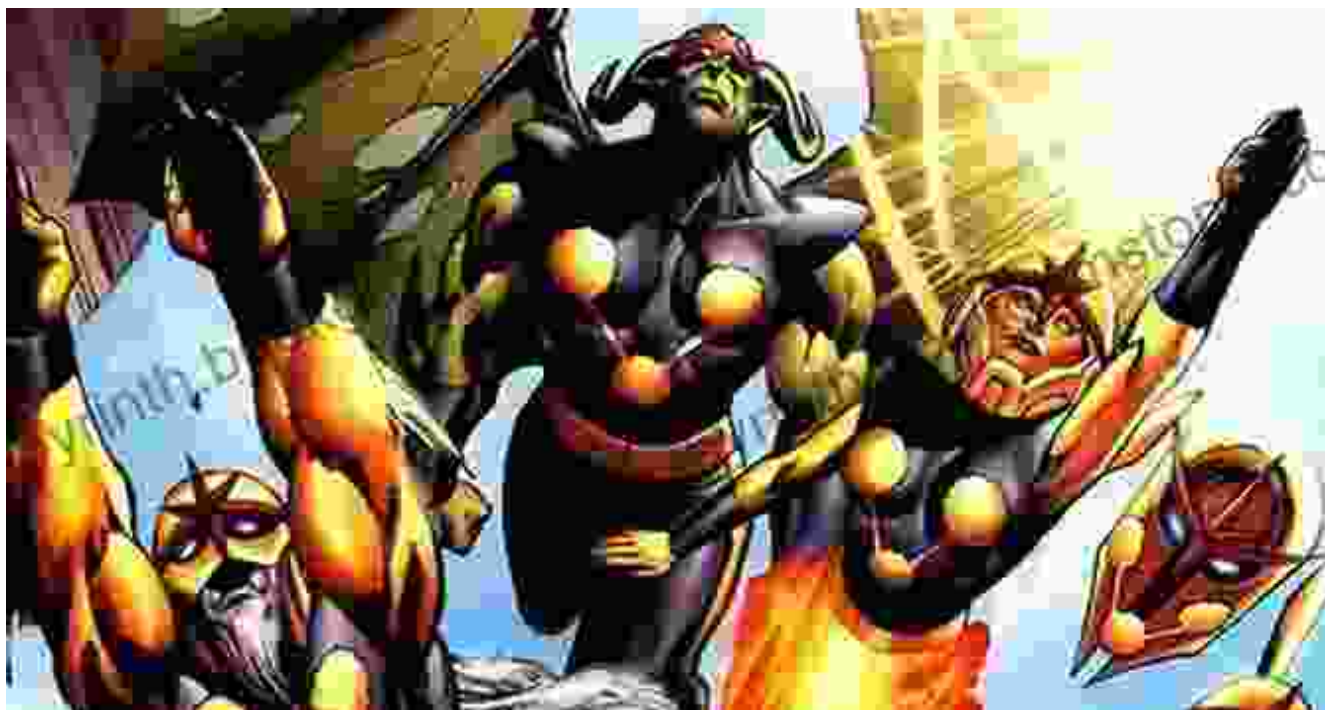

The Drift Nova Force carried out a number of high-risk missions behind enemy lines during the Covenant invasion. Some of the unit's most notable missions include:

- The assassination of the Covenant Prophet of Regret
- The sabotage of a Covenant supercarrier
- The rescue of a group of hostages from a Covenant prison camp
- The reconnaissance of a Covenant fleet

Legacy

The Drift Nova Force played a vital role in the UNSC's victory over the Covenant. The unit's high-risk missions behind enemy lines helped to cripple the Covenant's war effort and ultimately led to their defeat. The Drift Nova Force is remembered as one of the most elite special forces units in UNSC history.
