The bulletin is divided into six sections, each of which covers a different aspect of homesteading:

1. Growing Food: This section provides detailed instructions on how to grow a variety of fruits, vegetables, and herbs, both in gardens and in containers. It also covers topics such as soil preparation, composting, and pest control.

2. Raising Animals: This section covers the basics of raising livestock, including chickens, goats, sheep, and pigs. It provides information on housing, feeding, and healthcare for each type of animal.
3. Building and Maintaining Your Home: This section provides step-by-step instructions for a variety of home improvement projects, such as building a chicken coop, repairing a fence, and installing a solar panel system. It also covers topics such as energy efficiency and sustainable building practices.
4. Preserving Food: This section covers a variety of methods for preserving food, including canning, freezing, and drying. It also provides recipes for a variety of preserved foods, such as jams, jellies, and pickles.
5. Making and Using Natural Remedies: This section provides instructions for making and using a variety of natural remedies for common ailments, such as colds, headaches, and digestive problems. It also covers topics such as herbal medicine and aromatherapy.
6. Living Off the Land: This section provides tips and advice on how to live a more self-sufficient life, including foraging for wild edibles, hunting, and fishing. It also covers topics such as water conservation and waste management.
