In 2012, he founded Aventuras Con Teo, a non-profit organization that provides food, water, and veterinary care to the dogs of Yelapa.

Teo is known for his gentle and compassionate nature, and the dogs of Yelapa adore him. He has a unique ability to connect with animals, and they seem to sense his genuine love and concern. sand and the waves. He will also take them for a swim in the ocean, where they can cool off and have some fun. In the evenings, Teo often takes the dogs for a walk up to the nearby jungle, where they can explore the trails and chase lizards.

No matter what the activity, Teo always makes sure that the dogs are having fun and are well-cared for. He carries a backpack full of water and treats, and he is always on the lookout for potential hazards. The dogs love going on adventures with Teo, and they always seem to have a great time. But it's not just about the fun and games. Teo also uses his tours to educate visitors about the importance of animal welfare and the special bond between humans and animals.
